 To the Editor

What a gorgeous breathtaking photograph on the cover (THEMA 28:2, 2016, Lost in the Zoo)! I just saw it online. My compliments to the photographer.

From the Editor—Kudos to Kathleen Gunton, whose photography has graced several of our issues.

From Kathleen Gunton—The new THEMA is beautiful — so honored to be on the cover. You are always so respectful of the art you publish and I am grateful.

I keep loaning my copies of THEMA, and they don't come back.

 Authors' Notes

As last time, I do count your acceptance of my manuscript an honor. I am a huge fan of your journal. On a personal note, I had completely given up writing until you accepted my last story (“The Second Gate,” THEMA 28:2, 2016, Lost in the Zoo). (This is no longer the case.)

— Charles Chapman

I know that when I get one letter, a new deadline approaches, so I checked my files and lo, what an interesting theme!

— James B. Nicola
